

Date: March 14, 2026	Entry: #02
Description	Suspicious File Download Malware Analysis
Tool(s) used	VirusTotal
The 5 W's	● BlackTech, an advanced threat actor group based in China, are the culprits of this incident. ● An employee downloaded the file, then entered the password to open the file. When the employee opened the file, a malicious payload was then executed on their computer. ● 1:11 p.m.: An employee receives an email containing a file attachment. 1:13 p.m.: The employee successfully downloads and opens the file. 1:15 p.m.: Multiple unauthorized executable files are created on the employee's computer. 1:20 p.m.: An intrusion detection system detects the executable files and sends out an alert to the SOC. ● Financial Services Company ● An employee thought the email was a work-related spreadsheet.
Additional notes	Upon further investigation using Virustotal, the file is malicious, with three different sandbox reports confirming this.